Overview of Kuwait

Overview

- The State of Kuwait is a sovereign state on the coast of the Arabian Gulf with a population of 4.8 million
- Kuwait is a constitutional monarchy, headed by His Highness the Emir, Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah
- Kuwait enjoys an open economy, dominated by the government sector. Its economy is primarily dependent on the oil industry, but has witnessed growing contribution from non-oil sectors
- Kuwait has one of the lowest industry breakeven oil prices globally and a fiscal breakeven lower than some other GCC countries, making it more resilient to low oil prices. It has accumulated substantial fiscal and external surpluses, which serve as a buffer against volatile market conditions
- Kuwait has a long-term policy vision under the banner of “Kuwait Vision 2035”. It encompasses six strategic aims: increasing GDP growth, encouraging the private sector, supporting human and social development, promoting demographic policies, enhancing and improving the effectiveness of government administration, and consolidating the country’s Islamic and Arab identity

Kuwait's Economy

Recent Developments

GDP Growth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Real GDP is projected to decline 6.2% in 2020 due to sharply lower oil production as Kuwait adheres to OPEC+ cuts. Growth could rebound to 1.9% in 2021 as these cuts are partially reversed.
Public Finance and Inflation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Non-oil growth is seen at -4.0 in 2020 on fallout from the Covid pandemic, with the large government sector limiting the drop. The government is however looking to cut spending to address the fiscal deficit. The budget for FY20/21 pencils in a 4% drop in outlays, including a larger cut in capex. Currently at 2.2% (August), inflation will remain low, supporting real purchasing power. There is some downside risk from potential softness in residential real estate rents.
Consumer Sector	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consumer spending took a major hit during the lockdown months, but has bounced back rapidly. POS/ATM spending was up 27% y/y in August, with online spending up sharply. Loan payment deferrals have supported the spending outlook, as has the large number of nationals in stable public sector jobs.
Credit Growth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private credit growth has held up relatively well so far in 2020 at 4.6% y/y in July helped by (i) loan repayment deferrals and (ii) rising loans to retail firms. The policy rate has been cut to 1.5%. Deposit growth picked up to 2.9% y/y in July helped by stronger private deposits; government deposits have been solid so far this year, now up 6.2% y/y.
Real Estate Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Property sales were hit by government and business shutdowns earlier in the year, but had returned to more solid levels by August. The residential sector could hold up well given solid demand base.
